

Profile

Since its founding in 1881 as Japan's first telecommunications equipment manufacturer, the OKI Group has continuously developed and offered technologies and services to contribute to the progress of society in the info-telecom systems, semiconductor and printer sectors. Today, the OKI Group's mission is to realize an e-Society, full of ubiquitous services to bring peace of mind to people around the world. With its long-standing, enterprising spirit, the OKI Group will continue to offer products that contribute to the development of information society, while helping to provide people around the world with a convenient and comfortable lifestyle.

e-Society

A wide range of information is being exchanged beyond time and space over global networks. This breaks down the boundaries among countries, regions and cultures, enabling individuals to engage in various social activities in an impartial, secure way.
