

The OKI Group's initiatives of corporate social responsibility (CSR) focus on contributing to the improvement of the quality of life for people around the world through sound corporate activities based on our corporate philosophy.

Corporate Philosophy

The people of OKI, true to the company's "enterprising spirit," are committed to creating superior network solutions and providing excellent information and communications services globally to meet the diversified needs of communities worldwide in the information age.

OKI Group Charter of Corporate Conduct

For the betterment of corporate value, the OKI Group (Oki Electric Industry Co., Ltd. and members of its group of companies) seeks to provide satisfaction to its customers at all times and to become a trusted partner for our stakeholders, including shareholders and investors, employees, customers and suppliers, and the local societies of the areas in which it operates. In addition to complying with all related laws and regulations, the OKI Group will implement sound corporate activities consistent with social norms, and contribute to the improvement of the quality of life for people around the world.

Customer Satisfaction

The OKI Group is dedicated to developing and providing products and services that ensure continued customer satisfaction, in full consideration of safety and ease of use.

Fair Corporate Activities

The OKI Group conducts appropriate transactions and works to ensure fair, transparent, and free competition.

Good Communication

The OKI Group engages with society through a variety of interactions, and discloses company information in manners that are appropriate and fair.

Intellectual Property and Information Management

The OKI Group recognizes the importance of intellectual property, and properly manages and protects company and customer information, including personal information.

Respect for Human Rights

The OKI Group respects the human rights of all persons involved in its corporate activities and eliminates illicit discrimination of any kind. It does not allow child labor nor forced labor.

A Better Working Environment

The OKI Group ensures and maintains a safe and comfortable working environment for all employees.

Respect for Employees

Respecting the individuality of each employee, the OKI Group creates a corporate culture in which its personnel are encouraged to engage challenges facing the group with courage and determination.

Environmental Conservation

In order to realize and pass on a better global environment, the OKI Group promotes environmental management and makes efforts to conserve the environment through its products and its business activities.

Social Contribution

As a good corporate citizen, the OKI Group implements social contribution activities dedicated to the betterment of society.

Regional Awareness

The OKI Group endeavors to build a positive relationship and grow together with local societies, respecting the cultures and customs of the countries and regions in which it operates.

The OKI Group, as described in its corporate philosophy, aims at contributing to the improvement of the quality of life for people around the world through its core business, namely the manufacturing and distribution of products and services that can serve the development of the information age. What underlies the group's CSR (corporate social responsibility) initiatives is our commitment to the pursuit and fulfillment of this idea.

In order to cohesively promote our CSR initiatives, we enacted the OKI Group Charter of Corporate Conduct as a statement of values to be shared by all member companies of the group. In addition, we also established the OKI Group

Code of Conduct which is to be conformed to by all executives and employees of the group. We have disseminated the charter and the code across the group through various means such as training programs. We have also defined seven priority themes to be pursued. The CSR Division, an organization dedicated to CSR-related efforts, takes the initiative in promoting activities under these themes.

We will continue to make every effort to fulfill our social responsibility based on our corporate philosophy by ensuring that each member of the group complies with the OKI Group Charter of Corporate Conduct and the OKI Group Code of Conduct.

Participation in the United Nations Global Compact

OKI has participated in the United Nations Global Compact since May 2010. The UN Global Compact is a CSR initiative proposed by then-UN Secretary-

General Kofi Annan at the World Economic Forum meeting in January 1999. The participating organizations are asked to make autonomous efforts based on the Global Compact's ten principles in the areas of human rights, labor, environment, and anti-corruption.

The OKI Group regards its participation in the UN Global Compact as a perfect opportunity to further enhance its CSR activities and contribute to the realization of sustainable society.

The Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact

Human Rights:

- Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
- Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

Labor:

- Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
- Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labor;
- Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labor; and
- Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Environment:

- Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
- Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
- Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

Anti-Corruption:

- Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.
